Our Mission is to help others grow in the love and joy of Jesus Christ

February 2022

Pastor's Note...

The Kathleen Thomerson hymn says, "I want to walk as a child of the light. I want to follow Jesus," but how does that translate into real life? We're pretty sure what it means to walk in darkness: tangled up in lies, doubtful of whom to trust, certain of who we could blame, bitter, and wondering how to tear everything down and start over.

What we're not sure about? How to be light in the Lord.

So, during the month of February and in preparation for the season of Lent we'll look together at how we might do that.

What do our daily prayers look like? What is our conduct? How does it distinguish us as light in the Lord?

As these days of trial continue in the earth, how will we demonstrate our readiness for Jesus' coming? How will we keep ourselves from being seduced by the false offers of peace and safety the world will try to give us?

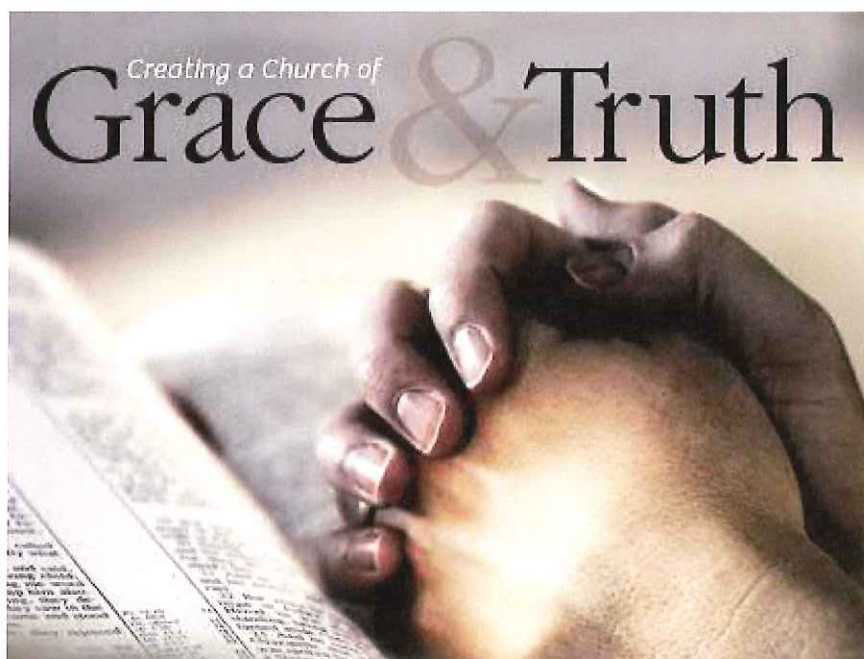

When push comes to shove how will we stand in our integrity and maintain the fullness of grace and truth? This is our calling and we will look together at how we might fulfill it.

So, mark each Sunday morning on your calendar with an appointment to worship and search the Scriptures with me. Read the Scripture lesson from each Sunday ahead of time and expect the Lord's clear and convicting direction to operate in you.

One of the most encouraging things to see when you've been on a long trip are the familiar sites and milestones that count your way down to home. The relief and anticipation build as you draw ever closer to where you belong. Talk to your friends and meet with them in Sunday School after worship.

Some of you may want to plan on joining and participating in the choir practice each Wednesday evening at 6:30pm. Come on and make a joyful noise with me. We'll be like the ancient army of Israel, winning the victory when we lead everything with praise.

Don't forget to pray for one another and help one another when you can. Love, Norman.

Church Security

Dear Church Family,

For our convenience and safety, our Legacy Hall entrance has a keycode that can be used to gain entrance to the building. It is easier and cheaper to change a key code than it is to change locks on the door, should the need arise for such action. The code will be given to any church member that needs it, but with that privilege comes responsibility. If you know the code to the door, we ask that you PLEASE NOT SHARE it with others, ESPECIALLY to people that are not a part of our church family. We've had situations where a non-member has entered our building on several occasions using the code. That is why we changed it back in October. If you have any questions or comments, please contact me at sueeggleston918@gmail.com or (434)664-7325. Thanks for your cooperation and understanding. \o/

Church Council Minutes
Memorial United Methodist Church
January 19, 2022 Meeting

Those in attendance were Sue Eggleston, Norm Ramsey, Nathan Putney, Angie Dillon, Debby Long, Mitch Eggleston, Doug Webb, Rodney Deaner, Cindy Ranson.

Zooming in were Tom Hall, Kinckle Robinson, Leeann Robinson, Blair Smith, Dawn Elliott, Marie Milton, Bobby Waddell, Sue Waddell, Wendy Boswell, Sarah Marsh.

Sue Eggleston called the meeting to order at 7:35 pm.

Debby Long led devotions from Sarah Young devotional.

Minutes from December 2021 were approved.

Kinckle Robinson (Finance)...$57K+ came into the church in December, putting us only $1800 behind in our 'estimate of giving'. Ended the year in a strong financial position due to spending being down from a typical year. We took in $1500 for new pavers, and we have $700+ left over from that project.....consensus voted to move this money to the maintenance fund.

Sue Eggleston (CC Chair)...Leadership/Planning retreat is 1/29 at Legacy Hall. Need a head count from CC members as to who is attending. Newsletter deadline is 1/20. MLK Jr event is rescheduled to Sunday 1/23 at 2:30 PM. It was decided that we would wait until General Conference meets before we seek speakers or information on the direction of the Methodist Church.

Bobby Waddell...Financial giving reports will be sent out soon.

Sue Waddell (Missions)...Planning a food drive for next month to support the local food bank Mac's Kitchen. Could use more members on the Missions Committee!

Doug Webb (Lay Delegate)...A special virtual conference is being held on 1/29 to vote on funding the settlement of the Boy Scouts lawsuit against the UMC. Virginia Conference portion of the settlement is about 1 million dollars.

Wendy Boswell (Evangelism)...Kid's Night Out will be held 2/12, 5-8 pm. Need volunteers!

Debby Long (Super Seniors)...Will have breakfast meetings through the winter months. Next one is this Friday at Rayl yard at 9 am.

Nathan & Brenda Putney (Prayer)...Prayer Ushers continue to serve each Sunday. Bi-weekly prayer meetings are being held on Monday nights (next meeting is 1/24).

Angie Dillon and Cindy Ranson (Daycare)...Daycare had a great Christmas break. Nancy reports they have dealt with some Covid cases, some children were quarantined and the school age kids program was shut down for a few days. No serious cases so far!

Debby Long and Marie Milton (Congregational Care)...10 of our church members formed 3 teams and visited 35 homes of our senior members on 12/19, singing carols and giving a small gift. After worship on that Sunday, everyone was presented with a small tea light, circling the perimeter of the sanctuary while singing our closing hymn.

Harry White (Property and Grounds)...The internal water usage problem has been mostly resolved. Still need to replace 4 high water use toilets.

Blair Smith (Worship)...Greeters and Worship Assistants have been scheduled through February. Easter Cantata is being planned. There are some members wishing a return to 2 worship services.....due to the omicron variant, decided to put this off until Spring. Planning a revival for the Fall. Ash Wednesday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Easter Sunrise services are being discussed.

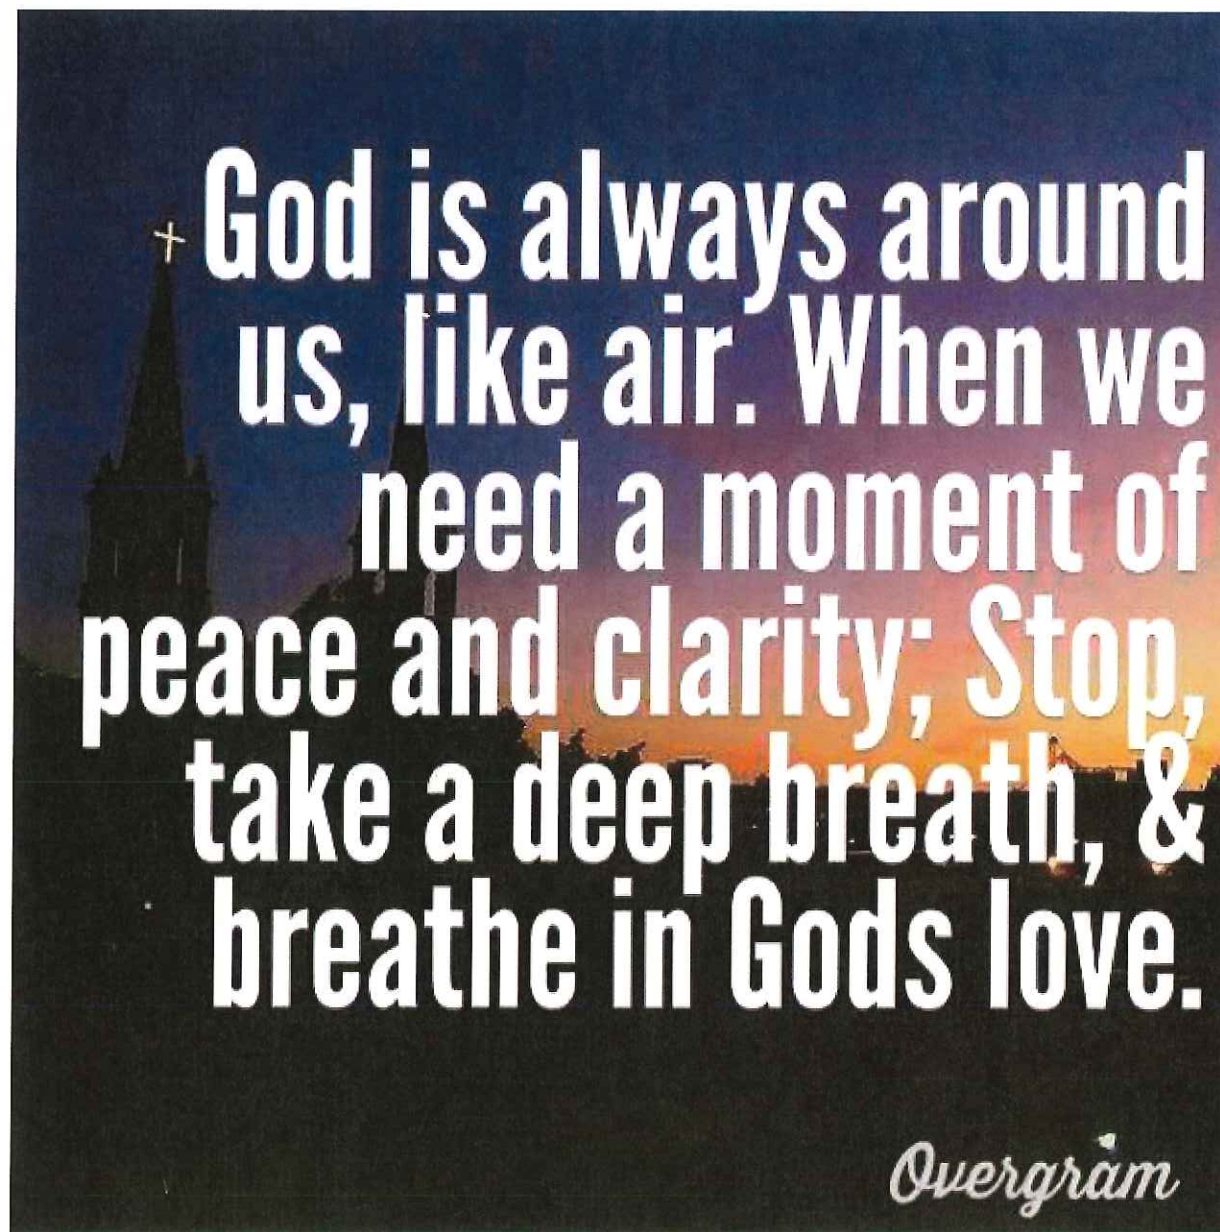

Donna Deaner and Leeann Robinson (Education)...Currently planning Bible studies for Spring. Anyone interested in leading a study or have a study they would like to see offered, contact Donna or Leeann.

Norm Ramsey (Pastor)...Gave thanks for the generosity of the church to UMCOR for tornado relief. Also, thankful for the upcoming visioning retreat and those who continue to pray for the witness and ministry of Memorial. Asked if the council would consider a Saturday service next time bad weather was forecast for Sunday, this was approved by consensus. Received a request from the Evangelical Fellowship/WCA about using the church for worship in April....not approved by consensus. Continue to pray for our Bishop and the cabinet, our church and its ministries, the visioning retreat, and the special annual conference meeting to discuss the Boy Scout funding settlement. Would like to thank Rodney Deaner and David Drinkard for being available while I was on vacation.

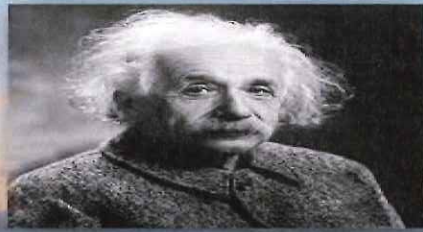

Nathan Putney closed with prayer.

Sue Eggleston adjourned the meeting at 8:17 pm.

mle

I am not a genius, I am just curious. I ask many questions. and when the answer is simple, then God is answering.

WHAT QUESTIONS ARE YOU ASKING?

Albert Einstein

Tony Robbins advises, "successful people ask better questions, and as a result, they get better answers." The outcomes in life are influenced by the questions you ask yourself. Your life questions outline has a powerful impact. Back to Tony's thoughts: "look at the worst thing that's ever happened to you and ask, 'How is this the best thing that's ever happened to me?' What is your focus? Are you asking why God allow this to happen? If so, you're working from the baseline of happenings are dire, and you are unlucky."

After they killed her husband, Elisabeth Elliot spent years serving the Auca people. She tells us to look to faith, not to eliminate questions but to know where to take and how to ask our questions. Our minds work in a loop, replaying our thoughts and building a self-narrative. Some questions create a productive mental tape; others don't. You have the choice to question life's circumstances from a destructive point of view or as an opportunity for growth. This choice, and yes, it is a choice, creates a frame of reference that colors our future mental narrative. Replace queries such as "why me," "everyone is out to get me," "nothing ever works out right," or "my family/boss/ hates me" with a different question.

What is my part, and what could I've done differently? This question moves the focus to what I own and control. The answer builds a blueprint for succeeding next time. It also avoids wasting time thinking about what other people did or did not do. Remember, you can't control them anyway.

What am I in denial about? The defense mechanism denial allows us to reject unpleasant realities and avoid conscious awareness. Denial, a false belief system, keeps us from facing the truth.

What does God want me to learn ? God is looking for those with whom He can do the impossible; what a pity that we plan only the things that we can do by ourselves. (A.W. Tozer)

Asking these questions and finding the answers has several advantages. You uncover skills needed in tomorrow's circumstances. The right questions support accepting that life's situations aren't permanent and can be remedied.

Also, these questions help you reframe and edit your mental movie of your life. Questions become a filter that enables you to see what you can learn from any situation. Following Paul Tillich's advice, "Being religious means asking passionately the question of the meaning of our existence and being willing to receive answers, even if the answers hurt."

As the saying goes, better to ask a question than to remain ignorant. You don't have to tread this path alone. At C/R, you will find help to develop the right questions to support your healing from your hurts, hang-ups, and harmful habits. Remember ..

For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened. Matthew 7:8

Now that we know what we have—Jesus, this great High Priest with ready access to God—let's not let it slip through our fingers. We don't have a priest who is out of touch with our reality.
