Your help in removing names (when appropriate) and giving updates is appreciated.

OFFERING ENVELOPES:

Did you know?

- 1) By using your “official” offering envelopes, you make the job easier for those that count and record the contributions.
- 2) It is REALLY HELPFUL if you put your name and contribution amount on the outside of the envelope. (If not, the counters will need to do it.)
- 3) Most people DO use their envelopes.
- 4) The assigned number on the envelopes is seldom important unless someone puts cash in the envelope with no name listed.
- 5) Using your envelopes helps you keep up with your pledges/regular contributions. If you miss a Sunday, the dated envelope in the box reminds you!
- 6) Individual envelopes are the official documentation for questions from givers when the tax report is distributed. Currently the envelopes are being kept for at least 3 years.

Now you know. ☺ Thank you for using your envelopes. PTL!
